The Group of 100 Advisory Council consists of eminent Chief Financial Officers who meet quarterly to discuss issues of importance to CFOs and their organisations.

The Advisory Council offers the G100 Board strategic counsel and advice on issues as appropriate.

At the most recent Group of 100 Board meeting, it was agreed that G100 members be included in the Advisory Council meetings so they can benefit from the discussion and network with their peers.

Today's leading CFOs creating better businesses for tomorrow
